Headteacher Message

This week in school we celebrated World Book Day with some fabulous outfits from staff as well as amazing from room door displays showcasing lots of different books. The pupils really enjoyed the day which ended with 'Drop Everything and Read' period 6.

We were also very lucky this week to have a visit from Wigan Warriors who gave a careers talk to all of our Year 11 pupils as well as bringing with them the Challenge Cup. We have a fantastic attendance prize for all pupils to have the opportunity to win linked to Wigan Warriors beginning next week.

ASSEMBLIES

A big thank you to Mrs McQueen for delivering insightful and thought provoking assemblies on Knife Crime to all year groups.

During the assemblies our pupils learnt about the dangers of carrying a knife and how decisions made as a young person can have long lasting negative impact on adult life.

Pupils received clear guidance on the steps to take if they are concerned about knife crime.

PUPIL VOICE

A big thank you to all our pupils.

Pupil voice and developing their leadership skills plays an important part in school life at DTRB. The Pupil Parliament meet leaders at school on a regular basis and as a group are keen to continue to enhance the wider school experience. We listened to our pupils about developing our outside spaces but we also wanted to reward them for always being so wonderful. Over the half term break we installed two outdoor table tennis tables for pupils to use during break and lunch. Thank you to our pupil leaders who run this club so efficiently! .

Year 7 Colour Theory.

Year 7 have been looking at colour theory using pencil crayons and watercolour paints based on the theme of Pop Art and sweets. Their work looks fantastic! Well done year 7!

FACULTY OF THE WEEK: Food Technology

KS3 Food and Nutrition

In KS3 this term, we have been busy recapping the rules and importance of food safety and being safe in the kitchen. We have made a range of dishes such as fruit salad and ragu in year 7, mac and cheese, bread and chill con carne in year 8 and 9. Students have worked fantastically and have made some fantastic products!

KS4 Hospitality and Catering

Year 10 have been working really hard, as always! We have moved onto unit 1 where we have been learning about food related ill health, allergies, intolerances and different types of cross contamination. We have also recapped butchery by portioning a chicken and marinating it and have also made a cheesecake that students developed into different flavours.

Year 11 have been working incredibly hard on their unit 2 coursework and exam preparation and have began their practical exams on 1st March. We would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all our year 11 on their tenacious attitude and incredible autonomy on creating their exam dishes. You have all done us so proud and we are so excited to see your finished products in your exams!

LITERACY CHALLENGE

Word of the week: Dystopia

= an imagined state or society in which there is great suffering or injustice, typically one that is totalitarian or post-apocalyptic.

As part of World Book Day this year, the English team created a lesson based on dystopian fiction. To take your knowledge from this further, we would like you to create your very own opening to a dystopian novel.

Remember think about each of the following dystopian featured in your opening:

1. Rules that society or a group must follow
2. Extreme conformity across society
3. Restricted freedom for people
4. A totalitarian, ruling government or force
5. A previous disastrous event
6. Technological advances or control
7. A rebellious protagonist who opposes control
8. A setting in the future

Remember, be creative with your work! This is your chance to develop a dystopian world that is completely fictional.

Powerful language

- Conformity = compliance with standards, laws or rules
- Totalitarian = relating to an all-powerful dictatorship that prohibits any opposition and has absolute control
- Rebellious = resists authority and control

BOOK OF THE WEEK: 1984

I'm writing this on World Book Day and school feels great; there's a real buzz around reading, with amazing costumes and doors decorated to reflect the variety of literary interests that there are in school.

The theme chosen by English was a bit different this year: dystopian fiction, so I've chosen a book you might have heard of from this genre. It's '1984' by George Orwell.

To Winston Smith, a young man who works in the Ministry of Truth (Minitru for short), come two people who transform this life completely. One is Julia, whom he meets after she hands him a slip reading, "I love you." The other is O'Brien, who tells him, "We shall meet in the place where there is no darkness." The way in which Winston is betrayed by the one and, against his own desires and instincts, ultimately betrays the other, makes a story of mounting drama and suspense.

How does it work?

Please can parents be aware that medical appointments should, wherever physically possible, not take place during school hours. They should be arranged for before or after school. The attendance office should be notified via phone when this is not possible.

It is also essential that parents of absent pupils should call school to notify us of reasons before 9am. After this time, communications regarding absence will primarily go home via email. Parents who have downloaded the MCAS app, will also get a notification there. If you think you need to update your details to accommodate this, please get in touch.

As always, excellent attendance at school is the only sure-fire way to guarantee excellent success for our pupils. Don't forget about our Going for Gold reward scheme which concludes in the summer with a fantastic reward trip for pupils!

Safer Internet Tips...

Top Tips for Parents and Carers

Have a look at the tips and links below with some suggestions on how to get you started and help you to stay safe and positive online. You and your family can #PlayYourPart in creating a better internet by...

Having conversations without judgement.

Whether by playing games, watching videos, or doing things your child enjoys, spending time together online is a great way to start conversations about the online world and how they're finding being a part of it.

It is important to ask questions and take an interest in what your child enjoys online. An essential part of having this open dialogue is to not judge, even if their behaviour or life online isn't what you wanted or expected. This ensures that your child feels they can come to you if ever they make a mistake or experience a problem online.

Knowing where you can learn more about their favourite apps and games.

Websites like Common Sense Media or The Family Gaming Database can be invaluable sources of information. When your child starts talking about a new game or app, why not do some research into the reporting and blocking options available? Then you can help your child if they come to you with an issue.

Getting support if things go wrong.

There are lots of organisations who are there to support you and your family if something has gone wrong. The Report Harmful Content website can help you with issues such as cyberbullying, impersonation and threats. You can report worrying behaviour towards children to CEOP. Find out more on Children's Get Help page.

Reassuring your child that whatever happens online, you are there to support them.

Let your child know that the best way to address any problem they have online, is to tell a trusted adult immediately. For example, this might include someone sending them a friend request; an online message; telling them to visit a specific website, or app; or asking them for their personal information. Reassure them that if anything happens online that they are unsure about, or makes them feel worried or upset, they can come to you for help.
